

Raised Rib Hat©2020

By Kera Weiserbs

Materials

Yarn

) 1 Ball • Madelinetosh • Tosh Vintage • 187 m/62 gm • Alizar (Maroon)

Equipment

) Knittingboard™ 'Rotating' Double Knit Loom • Loom hook • Yarn needle • 3-5 mm Crochet hook

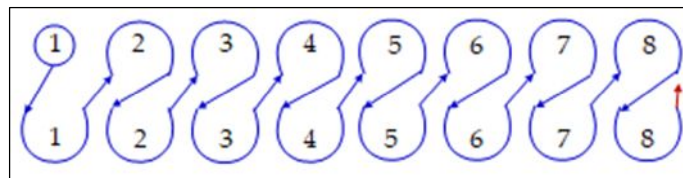

Sizing

1. Child
 - a. Medium: Knit a 6-inch hat using a 52 peg Knittingboard Double Rotating Loom.
 - b. Large: Knit a 7-inch hat using a 52 peg Knittingboard Double Rotating Loom.
2. Adult
 - a. Small: Knit an 8-inch hat using a 52 peg Knittingboard Double Rotating Loom.
 - b. Medium: Knit a 9-inch hat using a 52 peg Knittingboard Double Rotating Loom.
 - c. Large: Knit a 8-inch hat using a 60 peg Knittingboard Double Rotating Loom.
 - d. Extra-large: Adult size (M): Knit a 9-inch hat using a 60 peg Knittingboard Double Rotating Loom.

Casting-on

1. Weave one rotation of the single rib stitch (illustrated in Figure 1).

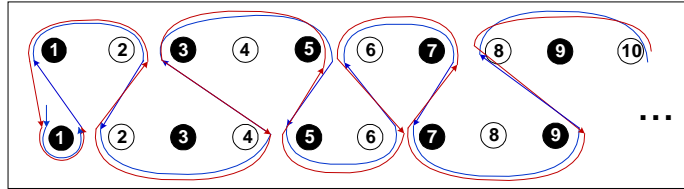

Figure 1: One rotation of the single rib stitch.

Body

1. Knit 6 to 9 inches of the raised rib stitch[®] (illustrated in Figure 2).

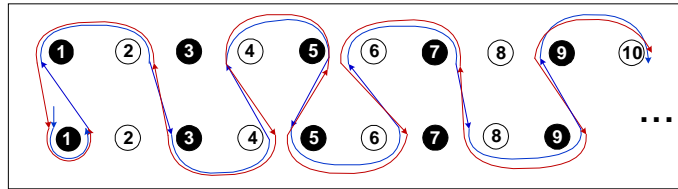

Figure 2. Raised rib stitch[®] alternating between pairs and triple raised rib stitches.

Crown

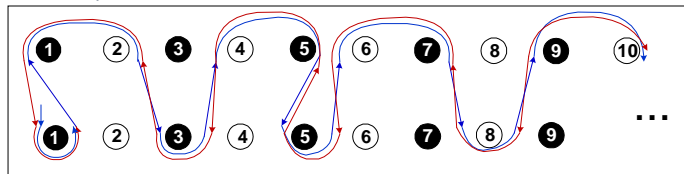

1. On both rakes, remove the left most stitch from each rib triplet (e.g. loops #2, 7, 12 on the front rake) one peg to the right and knit-off. Repeat the process on the back rake. The resulting pattern should look like the looping diagram in Figure 3.
2. Knit three rows of the looping pattern in Figure 3.

Figure 3. Looping diagram after removing two stitches from each stitch-triplet

3. On both rakes, remove the right most stitch from each original triplet (e.g. loops # 4, 9, 14 on the front rake) one peg to the left and knit-off. Repeat the process on the back rake. The resulting pattern should look like the looping diagram in Figure 4.
4. Knit three rows of the looping pattern in Figure 4.

Figure 4. Looping diagram after removing two stitches from each stitch-triplet

5. Cut-off a 30-inch yarn tail. Weave the yarn tail through the loops, as illustrated in Figure 5, and remove the loops from the loom.
6. Pull the drawstring tightly. Knot the yarn tail; hide a couple of inches within the stitches; and cut-off the rest of the yarn tail.

7. Add a crochet bind-off around the rim.

Figure 5. Weave the yarn tail through the loops.

